BRUCE GORDON,
CHAIRMAN & CEO,
COLUMBIA

Currently serving as chairman and CEO of Columbia, Bruce Gordon has worked at the firm since he was very young and has held a variety of supervisory and management positions. He's been involved with most of the projects undertaken by Columbia over the past four decades. Some of the more memorable of those have included Siemens Healthineers' Advanced Manufacturing and R&D Facility in Walpole, Martha's Vineyard Hospital's new replacement hospital, and Hobbs Brook Management's corporate campus at 175/185 Wyman St. in Waltham. Gordon has presented at national forums for organizations such as NAIOP and IFMA and he has been a guest lecturer at renowned institutions such as the Harvard Graduate School of Design and MIT's Center for Real Estate. He and cousin Randy Lilly became majority owners of Columbia in 1993.
